

Who We Are

Since 1963, Goodwill Industries of Central North Carolina, Inc. has helped individuals with barriers to employment become self-sufficient. We operate retail stores and community resource and career centers to serve Alamance, Caswell, Guilford, Randolph and Rockingham counties. We accept donated goods, resell those items in our stores, and use the revenue to provide job training in our community resource centers. The Eden Community Resource Center opened in 2011 and serves members of the Rockingham community.

Mission: Goodwill Industries of Central North Carolina, Inc. promotes the value of work by providing career development services and work opportunities for people with employment needs.

Vision: Our vision is to be the recognized leader in helping people develop the work skills necessary to successfully integrate into the competitive labor market.

Values: We value work and its accomplishments, our reputation as a trustworthy entity, competence, respect for the independence and intrinsic worth of individuals we serve, and communication with all stakeholder groups.

HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT

GED, ESL and HRD classes are taught by Rockingham Community College (RCC) instructors. HRD classes are free to NC residents who are unemployed or underemployed adults seeking employment, and VA residents approved to receive NC unemployment insurance benefits.
