Goodwill Industries and Vocational Rehabilitation Co-Hosting Job Fair in Asheboro on September 29, 2011

GREENSBORO, NC – Goodwill Industries of Central North Carolina, Inc. (Triad Goodwill), a leader in providing career development services and work opportunities for people with employment needs, is partnering with the North Carolina Department of Vocational Rehabilitation in Asheboro to host a job fair on Thursday, September 29, 2011.

The job fair will be held at the Asheboro Boys & Girls Club at 621 Franks Street, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Thursday, September 29, 2011. A variety of companies will be on hand to accept resumes for current job openings. Companies expected to attend include: Klaussner Home Furnishings, Alliance Tractor Trailer, Therapeutic Alternatives, Temporary Resources, Cross Roads Retirement, Safe T Works, United Brass Works, Western Southern Life, Select Staffing, Mega Force Staffing and SMX. Goodwill Industries will also be accepting applications for current job openings. Areas of interest for available job openings include: light industrial, production, warehouse, maintenance technicians, health care, sales, customer service and retail. Exhibitor space is still available and free of charge.

Job seekers are encouraged to dress their best and bring multiple copies of their current resume. For those individuals who do not have a resume or need help having a resume updated, assistance is available at Goodwill Industries' Asheboro Community Resource Center. Free and ample parking is available for attendees and exhibitors in the parking lot and at the street level.

For additional information or to reserve exhibitor space, contact Goodwill Industries' Asheboro Community Resource Center at 336-610-0400 or visit TriadGoodwill.org.
